

PERADENIYA INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM 2017

Key note Speaker - Dr. Herath Gunatilake

Dr. Herath obtained his Ph.D. Degree in Resource Economics from University of Hawaii and served as Professor and the Head, Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Peradeniya, Sri Lanka before joining Asian Development Bank (ADB). He has widely published on various subjects on agricultural, natural resources, forestry, energy and environmental economics. His recent publications are on private sector participation in infrastructure provisions, assessing and unbundling demand for water and electricity, energy trade and regional cooperation and economics of biofuels. Herath served as the co-editor of Sri Lankan Journal of Agricultural Economics and the President of Sri Lanka Agricultural Economist Association. In his current position as a Director, Environment and Safeguards Division in Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department of ADB he provides oversight on environment and social safeguards of ADB projects. ADB support 40 developing member countries in Asia with over $ 20 billion a year development assistance.

Address:

Herath Gunatilake

Director

Environment and Safeguards Division

Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department

Asian Development Bank

Phone: 632 6325468

Fax: 632 6362381