

Law Students Present Research Papers at the Undergraduate Research Congress of the Faculty of Arts 2021 (URCFA 2021)

The Undergraduate Research Congress of the Faculty of Arts, University of Peradeniya 2021, was held on the 31st of May 2022 at the Faculty of Arts. Hundreds of undergraduate students from the Faculty of Arts presented their undergraduate research studies at the Congress. Ten students from the Department of Law presented their research studies on the following interesting socio-legal issues.

The Right to Privacy of Criminal Suspects in Sri Lanka: A Comparative Analysis S.N. Walawege
A Critical Examination on the Legal Prohibition of the Custom of ‘Chidenam’ among the Tamil Community in the Northern Province of Sri Lanka U.Arapy
Work from Home: A Comparative Study on the Impact of Labor Laws on Working Hours and Leave of Employees P.M.P. Hewage
Introducing the Power to Recall Elected Representatives in Sri Lanka: A Comparative Legal Study C. Dunuvila
Violence against Transgender Sex Workers in Sri Lanka: A Socio-Legal Analysis R. I. Gawarammana
An Assessment of the Role of the Attorney General, with Specific Focus on Its Effectiveness and Independence within the Sri Lankan Legal Framework S.L.N. Amanda
Child Ordination and Child Rights in Sri Lanka: A Socio-Legal Study M.A.M.N. Perera

The Need to Criminalize Stalking in Sri Lanka: A Comparative Analysis

W.M. Kahadugoda

Legal Responses to Cyber Violence Against Women in Sri Lanka: A Comparative Legal Study

D.W.R.A.S.V Ranasinghe

A Legal Analysis of the Banning of Oil Palm Cultivation in Sri Lanka

S.K Doranegama